Title	Ambitions for Palliative and End of Life Care: how can we make them a reality?

Dr Jane Collins

Chief Executive, Marie Curie

Dr Jane Collins joined Marie Curie as Chief Executive in September 2012. Before that, she was Chief Executive of Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children for 11 years, having previously been the medical director of the hospital. Dr Collins was also the Chief Executive of Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity.

Dr Collins qualified in medicine at Birmingham University, becoming a consultant paediatric neurologist at Guy's Hospital in 1991 and Great Ormond Street Hospital (GOSH) in 1994. In both her clinical and management careers at GOSH and Marie Curie, Dr Collins has focused on improving the quality and safety of care, as well as supporting new research and treatment programmes.
