

Speaker Biography

Sally Garbett

Vocational Programmes Manager, St Christopher's Hospice

Sally Garbett is the Vocational Programmes and Talent and development lead at St Christopher's Hospice and manages the vocational training and City & Guilds centre which recently celebrated its 1000th learner. Sally provides information and advice on Apprenticeships and vocational education to a hospice network of over 300 members from more than 150 hospices.

Sally has been involved in the development of the Apprenticeships for Health, the Nursing Associate and the Registered Nurse Degree Apprenticeship. She works with a number of national organisations to ensure that hospices have a voice and are able to influence national developments in end of life care and related challenges. These include Skills for Health, Health Education England, and City & Guilds

Prior to working for St Christopher's Sally worked for St Giles Hospice and has 20 years experience as a freelance consultant specialising in vocational education, qualification development, regulatory activities and Apprenticeships.