

Speaker Biography

Professor Philip Larkin

Professor of Palliative Care Nursing and Academic Director, Institute for Education and Research in Care, University of Lausanne, Switzerland

Professor Philip J Larkin PhD, M.Sc, B.Sc (Hons), RN RCN, RNT is currently Professor of Palliative Care Nursing at the University of Lausanne, Philip has worked in palliative care for 30 years as a clinician, academic and researcher. He is currently President of the European Association of Palliative Care (EAPC). In 2007, Philip received the Lifetime Achievement Award from Macmillan Cancer Support and the International Journal of Palliative Nursing. Philip was a Fulbright Scholar to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute in 2014 where he undertook research into compassion in palliative care. As Academic Director of the Institute for Higher Education and Research into Care, he is responsible for post-graduate nurse education at Masters and Doctoral level.

