Marie Cooper

Practice Development Lead, Hospice UK

Marie is a registered nurse with extensive experience of clinical leadership and expertise in practice development. During her nursing career she has worked in a range of care settings, including a two-year sabbatical in 2005 working in township in South Africa.

Marie joined Hospice UK in 2013 as Practice Development Lead. Her role focuses upon working with hospice clinical leaders and national organisations to champion the delivery of high quality, accessible palliative care for everyone who needs this.

Her current projects include the development of a quality Improvement programme for hospices, hosting the monthly 'Building resilient teams' webinar programme and working with colleagues to build strong and vibrant clinical networks around shared interests.
