

national association
for hospice at home

Annual Conference 2017

Inspiring Our Communities: Time for Change in End of Life Care

Programme

Thursday 5th and Friday 6th October 2017

Kents Hill Park Conference and Training Centre
Milton Keynes

NAHH Trustees would like to thank the numerous companies and organisations who are supporting this event as sponsors and exhibitors.

In line with ABPI regulations we would like to make attendees aware that pharmaceutical companies have sponsored this event via provision of an exhibition stand and will be present on one day of the conference

Day 1: Thursday 5 October 2017

Time	Session	Speaker
09:15	Registration opens and refreshments available
	Exhibitors and Posters
10:00	Welcome	Kay Greene Chair and Trustee, NAHH
10:05	Chair's Opening Remarks	Marie Cooper Practice Development Lead, Hospice UK
10:15	Keynote speaker The opportunities and challenges in the current health and social care policy landscape	Jonathan Ellis Director of Policy and Advocacy, Hospice UK
11:00	Preparing for the future to ensure carers are supported	Professor Gunn Grande Professor of Palliative Care, University of Manchester Dr Gail Ewing Senior Research Associate, University of Cambridge
11:30	The role of the Carer Companion	Clare Perryman Carer Companion, Princess Alice Hospice
11:50	Envisioning the Digital Hospice	Dr Tim Cockle Head of Digital Strategy, Eduserv
12:15	Lunch, Exhibitors and Posters
13:45	Keynote speaker Building communities of practice to transform end of life care	Professor Max Watson Director Project ECHO, Hospice UK
14:30	Your Shout	All
15:00	Transition from paediatric to adult services	Professor Helen Finlinson Young Adult Care and Transition Lead, St Elizabeth Hospice
15:30	Afternoon Refreshments, Exhibitors and Posters
16:00	Buurtzorg model of home care	Brendan Martin Managing Director, Public World
16:45	Summary of the Day	Marie Cooper Practice Development Lead, Hospice UK
18:30	Pre-dinner Drinks
19:00	Conference Dinner	After Dinner Speaker: Professor Max Watson

Day 1: Friday 6 October 2017

Time	Session	Speaker
07:30	Breakfast (residential conference attendees only)
09:00	Welcome Annual General Meeting	Kay Greene Chair and Trustee, NAHH
09:30	Finance	Louise Eagle Treasurer & Trustee, NAHH
09:45	Chair's opening remarks	Marie Cooper Practice Development Lead, Hospice UK
10:00	Anyone for Co-Co? Compassionate Communities, Social Connection and Health	Paul Cronin Chief Executive, Severn Hospice
10:30	Keynote speaker Achieving a step change in experience of end of life care: why and how?	Professor Bee Wee National Clinical Director for End of Life Care – NHS England
11:15	Refreshments
11:45	Keynote speaker Compassionate Communities in practice: what is the evidence?	Dr Libby Sallnow SpR Palliative Medicine UCLH
12:30	The outcomes of engagement with an 'Out of Hospital' Design Board	Kay Greene Chair and Trustee, NAHH
13:05	Chair's closing remarks	Marie Cooper Practice Development Lead, Hospice UK
13:15	Sit-down lunch and networking (pre-ordered only) 'Grab and Go' Packed Lunch

In line with ABPI regulations we would like to make attendees aware that pharmaceutical companies have sponsored this event via provision of an exhibition stand and will be present on one day of the conference